

The half time disgrace at the Super Bowl was obviously condoned by MTV, CBS, and Viacom. Their total disregard to public policy and family values should be treated accordingly. I suggest suspending their license to broadcast in the United States for a month with a threat to pull their license if any breaches occur over the next 2 years.